

1 REMARKS:

2 In the Final Office Action, the Examiner notes that claims 9-14, 16, 18, and 20-28 are 3 pending in the application, that claims 9-12 are rejected, claims 20 through 28 are allowed, and 4 that claims 13, 14 and 18 are objected to. The Examiner notes that claims 13, 14 and 18 would be allowable if rewritten in independent form.

5 The present amendment incorporates the limitations of claim 18 into claim 9 and cancels 6 claim 18. Dependent claims 10-14 and 16 incorporate the limitations of claim 9 as currently amended.

7 I.

8 Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9 A. Claims 9-12 and 16 - Summary of Examiner's Grounds for Rejection

10 The Examiner rejected claims 9 through 11 and 16 under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being 11 unpatentable over Wollar et al., because it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill
12 in the art to have provided Wollar et al with six flat sides (instead of four) on the upper expanding portion of the fastener.

13 B. Applicants' Reply to Examiner's Rejections

14 Applicant has amended claim 9 to incorporate the limitations of Claim 18. The Examiner 15 has stated that claim 18, which depends only upon claim 9, would be allowable if rewritten in 16 independent form. Claims 10 through 14, and 16 are dependent on the amended base claim and 17 incorporate the limitations added therein. Claim 18, which limited the original claim 9 by phasing the splits 120 degrees apart, has been rendered redundant by the amendment to claim 9 and is therefore canceled.

18 Claims 20 through 28 have been allowed by the Examiner and are left in their original 19 form.

20 IV

21 Conclusion

22 Applicant respectfully submits that this submission is fully responsive to the August 17, 23 2004 Office Action, and these claims are in condition for allowance. The issuance of a Notice of Allowance at an early date is therefore requested.

24 If the Examiner believes a telephone conference would expedite prosecution of this 25 application, please telephone the undersigned at (661)395-1000.
